

Mission Giving

SUPPORTING MISSION AGENCIES & PARTNERS

Emmanuel Church does not allocate money to mission from central funds. Instead, our congregation members can allocate a proportion of their regular giving to one or more of the various mission agencies and link mission partners as they wish.

For regular mission giving, please fill in form 3.

For one-off donations, please arrange these directly with the mission agencies and link mission partners via: www.emmanuelchurch.co.uk/mission-partners

Mission Agencies

CMJ - Church's Mission to Jewish People

CMJ has a passionate desire to see Jewish People coming to fulfilment of their faith; and that they do not lose their Jewish identity because they have chosen to accept Jesus.

Our Link Mission Partners

Andrew and Lisa Peart

Andrew and Lisa Peart, with their two daughters Liliana and Anayah, are our link mission partners with CMS Latin America. They live in Santa Cruz, Bolivia. They are working with the pastor of their church to develop links with the local community through social projects such as parenting classes and micro finance, and by Youth Alpha.

Philip and Anna Evans

Philip (who grew up in Emmanuel) and Anna Evans live and work in Skopje, North Macedonia with their children Oscar and Grace. Operating through the marketplace, Philip runs his own food export business and Anna works full-time in the international school in Skopje. They both use their vocation to make an impact and build the kingdom in North Macedonia as well as finding time and energy to work with a local church supporting small church plants around North Macedonia. Our giving supports projects in their local church and community.

Parish Secretary: Rowena Stewart

Kirima

Kirima is a primary school in the rural Kanungu region of SW Uganda which Emmanuel has been linked with for over 25 years. Many Emmanuel members support the school by sponsoring pupils, through general giving and particularly in prayer. There are always more children to be sponsored.
